Note 1 Accounting principles

The quarterly report as at 30.06.2020 of EnergyKey AS has been prepared in accordance with accounting principles below.

The financial statements have been prepared in euro.

Cash

For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents are short-term (with a term of up to three months), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in market value. Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand and at bank, as well as short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less.

Receivables and prepayments

Accounts receivable are included in the balance sheet based on the estimated collectability assessed on an individual basis, considering the information available regarding the customer's solvency. Doubtful receivables are written down to the amount that will probably be received. If the receivable has become uncollectible it will be written off from the balance sheet.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are initially recognized at their acquisition cost, consisting of the fair value of the consideration given. Following initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at their amortised cost by using the effective interest rate method. Transaction costs are taken into consideration upon calculating the effective interest rate.

Interest expenses related to the financial liability are charged to the expenses of the period on accrual basis under "Net financial items" in the income statement.

The financial liability will be derecognized when the liability is paid, cancelled or expired.

Revenue

Revenue from sales of goods is recognized when all material risks related to the ownership of the asset have been transferred to the buyer, and the amount of revenue and expenses related to the transaction can be reliably measured. Revenue from sales of farm equipment is recorded upon installation of the equipment. Revenue from sales of services is recorded upon rendering of the service. Interest income is recognized based on the effective interest rate method, except if the receipt of the interest is doubtful. In this case, interest income is recorded on cash basis.

Taxation

Pursuant to the Income Tax Act, Estonian companies are not subjected to pay income tax on the profit. Rather, they are subjected to income tax on the paid dividends. Until 31.12.2014 the established tax rate was 21/79 of the net dividend paid. From 01.01.2015 it was changed to 20/80. Since income tax is paid on the dividends rather than profit, all temporary differences between the tax bases and carrying values of assets and liabilities cease to exist.

The company's potential income tax liability related to the distribution of its retained earnings as dividends is not recorded in the balance sheet.
